CRHC WELCOMES JULIA BANKS, FNP-C

Cabarrus Rowan Community Health Centers, Inc. (CRHC), is pleased to announce that Julia Banks, FNP-C has joined the Federally Qualified Community Health Center as a new Family Nurse Practitioner for the organization's mobile unit. The mobile unit runs on a monthly rotating schedule.

Julia Banks is a Family Nurse Practitioner with a Doctor of Nursing Practice, graduating from East Carolina University in 2020. Most of her time as a Nurse Practitioner since graduating has been COVID-19 specific, such as administering vaccines and testing. Julia has had over 16 years of experience in nursing, covering multiple specialties to include: Leadership/Management, Labor and Delivery, Public Health, School Health, Family Practice, and Case Management.

"I enjoy what I do because I have a passion to advocate for and serve those who are underserved and overlooked", says Julia Banks, FNP-C. "I am passionate about health literacy and education to empower patients to be the best advocate for their health and the health of their loved ones. I love to see people healthy and happy."

Cabarrus Rowan Community Health Centers, Inc. (CRHC) is a community-based nonprofit organization founded in 2003 and dedicated to positively impacting the health of the community. CRHC serves more than 12,000 patients annually by providing quality medical, dental, and behavioral health services, without regard for a patient's ability to pay, and serves as a community resource for eliminating health disparities.
