CRCHC WELCOMES COURTNEY JOHNSON, FNP-C

Concord, NC – Cabarrus Rowan Community Health Centers, Inc. (CRCHC), is pleased to announce that Courtney Johnson, FNP-C has joined the Federally Qualified Community Health Center and will be seeing patients at McGill Family Medicine, located at 202D McGill Ave., NW, Concord, NC 28025.

Courtney Johnson, FNP-C graduated from The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and continued her education by obtaining her Master of Science in Nursing, specifically a Family Nurse Practitioner concentration, from The University of North Carolina at Wilmington in 2015.

Prior to joining CRCHC, Johnson has previously worked as a Maternity Nurse for ten years where she cared for laboring mothers and provided postpartum and newborn care in a hospital setting. She also worked as a Nurse Practitioner in infectious diseases for five years, where she treated adults with various infections illnesses such as HIV, Hepatitis C, pneumonia, COVID-19, chronic wound infections and many other illnesses in hospital and outpatient settings.

“I enjoy working as a Nurse Practitioner because it gives me a chance to live out my calling to care for people”, says Courtney Johnson, FNP-C. “By nature, I love people and being able to give back to my community by way of my career is beyond rewarding. I look forward to assisting patients to better themselves each day.”

Cabarrus Rowan Community Health Centers, Inc. (CRCHC) is a community-based nonprofit organization founded in 2003 and dedicated to positively impacting the health of the community. CRCHC serves more than 12,000 patients annually by providing quality medical, dental, and behavioral health services, without regard for a patient's ability to pay, and serves as a community resource for eliminating health disparities.
